

VACSAL's accredited training data
Year	Qualification	Enrolled	Completed	Outcomes
2014	Certificate III in Community Services	25	21	17 students maintained or gained employment (10 went on to complete the Certificate IV in Community Services) 1 created a safer environment for his family including the full care of his children. 1 passed away 2 still working on their barriers
2015	Certificate III in Community Services	5	3	2 students went on to pathway into the Certificate IV in Community Services
	Certificate IV in Community Services	24	20	20 students maintained or gained employment
2016	Certificate III in Community Services	9	7	1 student went on the enrol in the Diploma and has secure full time employment 6 students secured employment and 5 went on the complete the Certificate IV in Community Services
	Certificate IV in Community Services	27	24	24 students maintained or gained employment
2017	Certificate IV in Community Services (in partnership with E-focus). VACSAL required this year to update to the new package for this qualification. VACSAL provided all training, assessing, support and employment pathways. Efocus	29	29	25 students maintained or gained employment 2 students still working on their barriers 2 students (unknown) provided administration support and scope of registration.

2018	Certificate IV in Community Services	35	29	24 students maintained or gained employment 1 student diagnosed with terminal cancer 1 student went to university to student international community development 3 student still working on their barriers
	Diploma of Community Services (Statutory and Forensics Child, Youth and Family Welfare) – in partnership with RMIT	16	15	15 students maintained or gained employment
2019	Certificate IV in Community Services	45	36	33 students maintained or gained employment 3 students still looking for secure work
	Diploma of Community Services (Statutory and Forensics Child, Youth and Family Welfare) – in partnership with RMIT	17	15	15 students maintained or gained employment
Total number of students		216	199	