

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Public Accounts and Estimates Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

2022-23 budget estimates hearings start Friday

Public hearings for the Victorian Government's 2022-23 budget estimates will commence this week.

You can watch live the Public Accounts and Estimates Committee's inquiry from 8:30 am on Friday.

The Treasurer Tim Pallas is scheduled to appear, followed by Premier Daniel Andrews at 2 pm.

From Monday 16 May to Friday 27 May Government Ministers and departmental representatives will give evidence to the joint investigatory committee on behalf of their various portfolios.

"Every year the Public Accounts and Estimates Committee looks at the spending and revenue raising plans contained in the State Budget," Committee Chair Lizzie Blandthorn said.

"These hearings are an important way Parliament ensures the accountability of Government."

Go to the Committee's website for further inquiry information and to see the full schedule.

Issued: 11 May 2022