

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Public Accounts and Estimates Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Hearing this Monday on gender responsive budgeting

On Monday 17 February 2020, the Public Accounts and Estimates Committee will hold a further public hearing for its inquiry into gender responsive budgeting.

The hearing with Angela Jackson from Equity Economics starts at 3:15 pm at 55 St Andrews Place, East Melbourne.

The Committee's inquiry is examining the way the state government budget addresses gender equality.

Gender responsive budgeting is being increasingly adopted worldwide as a tool to ensure that public financial management contributes to gender equality.

For more information on the inquiry, including submissions received and transcripts from an earlier hearing, visit the Committee's website.

Issued: 14 February 2020